Bangladesh is a land shaped by its rivers, and that presence flows naturally into its lullabies too — boats resting for the night, water settling still, birds returning to nest along the banks. Like most Bengali lullabies, these songs live by ear and memory rather than by any single fixed text, changing gently with every mother who sings them.

Traditional Bangladeshi (Bengali) lullaby style. The English lyrics are an original singable arrangement inspired by the region's riverine imagery, offered as a respectful tribute.
