Am Dm Am
Sleep now, little one, the jungle rain is still,
Dm Am E7
the river winds through emerald leaves, beside the forest hill.
Sleep now, little one, the fireflies glow soft light, tomorrow's sun will find the trees, and fill them with delight.

“Sleep now, little one, the jungle rain is still, the river winds through emerald leaves, beside the forest hill. Sleep now, little one, the fireflies glow soft light, tomorrow's sun will find the trees, and fill them with delight.”
