Lala, Mtoto

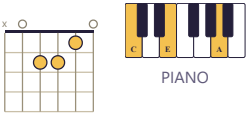

Swahili Lullaby · Eastern DR Congo · Key: A minor · ~56 BPM

Am Dm Am
Sleep now, little one, the great river flows so wide,
Dm Am E7
the fishing boats are resting now, along the forest side.
Lala, mtoto, the evening star is bright, tomorrow's sun will greet the river, bringing morning light.

“Lala” means “sleep” and “mtoto” means “child” in Swahili, one of DR Congo's national languages, widely spoken across the country's eastern provinces along the great Congo River.
