Across Palestine, lullabies are woven from the same gentle, everyday images found in family life — olive groves, the evening wind, a mother's endless watch over her sleeping child. Passed from voice to voice rather than written down, these songs carry warmth and continuity from one generation of mothers to the next.

Traditional Palestinian lullaby style. The English lyrics are an original singable arrangement offered as a respectful tribute to the tradition, focused on its everyday imagery of home and family.
